The author has a wonderful sense of humor and he sure speaks the truth in a most wonderful way. He never disappoints. Be sure to read this along with his other books.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Read, Laugh, and Get EducatedBy Marcia BernsteinA great read, funny and educational. Through satire Brett illustrates exactly how people, especially Americans, can be manipulated to accept policies completely against their own best interests and even against their own lives.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. beautifully researched and eloquently written with tongue-in-cheekBy Kay Williams, AuthorThis is a must-read book for everyone, not only seniors, beautifully researched and eloquently written with tongue-in-cheek. It will make you laugh and it will make you angry! Best of all it will make you vigilant.

Social Security and Medicare were once lauded as prime examples of America's great compassion and our superiority to other nations. Now the programs are being condemned by the privileged and the greedy as costly entitlements that are leading the country to ruin. Hy Brett's SECRET REPORT is a spoof on how the public, including seniors, might be manipulated to approve of novel legislation that promises to resolve the so-called crisis. Whether a spoof or, maybe, a forecast of things to come, it's a rollicking send-up of powerbrokers and the media, think tanks and politicians!

About the AuthorHy Brett was born on the Lower East Side but has lived in Brooklyn for most of his life. He was a feature writer and librarian at the New York Post until he left to have a go at freelancing. With his wife, Barbara, he wrote the critically acclaimed novel PROMISES TO KEEP, which was a Mystery Guild main selection. His articles and humor have appeared in such diverse publications as The New England Journal of Medicine and True Confessions. His quotation anthology, HOW TO SURVIVE THE NEW MILLENNIUM: Recycled Wisdom for an Age of Diminished Expectations, was hailed by critics as "an indispensable book for the Anxious Class," and as an "inspirational" aid by John A. Koskinen, Chair of President Clinton's Council on Year 2000 Conversion. Hy's love letter to his home town, THE ULTIMATE NEW YORK CITY TRIVIA, is loved so much by New Yorkers that excerpts were featured on the city's Centennial Web site. Hy also co-authored A BOOK OF LOVE FOR MY SON with H. Jackson Brown, who wrote the perennial bestseller LIFE'S LITTLE INSTRUCTION BOOK.
