This book does not disappoint. Koontz explains in the beginning who Anna is, his golden retriever. He gives Anna a "voice" as he did previously for Trixie. This one is a "dear anna" book with notes from other dogs explaining their problems and Anna's answers. A lot of the questions and answers have to do with a dog's self esteem and can easily be also applied to human situations ie. Don't worry about what others think, be true to yourself. What I absolutely love is the quality of this book. The photos of the dogs are just amazing, capturing the expressions that might easily go with the "conversation". I love that their are not just golden retrievers pictured here. It is a beautifully constructed physical book.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great gift for a dog loverBy Pack of SixAnna nose her stuff!!!! Great gift for a dog lover!!!!!!!!!!!!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Way to go Anna!By Ms EAs a dog-lover, I couldn't help but thoroughly enjoy Anna's advice. It was so "spot-on" and exactly what you'd expect a dog to say if he/she could talk. It's the kind of book you can read if you're feeling a little "down" and need a smile. My biggest disappointment was when I reached the end - it leaves you wanting more!

Dean Koontz is one of the world's biggest selling authors. Anna Koontz is Dean's remarkable dog who is poised to follow in her dad's footsteps with her first advice book for canines. She will soon become canine columnist to the world! With her superior intellect, sharp wit, a warm and fuzzy heart, Anna Koontz debuts her talent as an advice columnist in her seminal work ASK ANNA: ADVICE FOR THE FURRY AND FORLORN. Some of her best advice: take time daily for ball-chasing and belly rubs - the keys (along with sausages) to true canine joy. Learn more about the problems that plague Anna's clients and be inspired by how she counsels them. Also delight in Dean's just slightly skewed perspective on the importance of dogs throughout history. Without their advice, we humans would be in even worse trouble than we are today. They're heaven-sent (what is dog spelled backwards?!)

About the Author DEAN KOONTZ is one of the world's biggest selling authors, with fifteen #1 New York Times hardcover bestsellers and sixteen #1 paperback bestsellers. Dean and his wife Gerda live in Southern California.
