My favorite story is by far Chez Auditing. I actually wrote a speech earlier for a friend's going away party, and it was hilarious how similar my story was to Mike's. However, Mike's story was by far funnier and the intermingling of internal controls with spices added the extra flavor sure to please any pallet! Enjoy! If you do not find it funny I do not know what to tell you other than your internal controls may need some relaxing. Thank you Mike! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars

By far, the funniest book ever written about internal auditing. Highly recommended

What could be funnier than internal audit? Probably, just about anything. However, a few years ago Internal Auditor magazine decided to give it a stab and Mike Jacka began writing internal audit humor. Now, some of the best pieces from the magazine and Mike's blog "From the Mind of Jacka" have been gathered in this collection. Listen in on "The Adventures of Auditorman and COSO Boy", read the most recent "Report to the Audit Committee: Anderson, Grimm Goose Inc.", or sing along with "I Am the Very Model of a Modern Audit Manager". Come in and enjoy the weird world that is created when humor and internal audit collide.
