Andrew Howey : Aussie Slang Pictorial (ed. 3): “What’s it like, Mate?” before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Aussie Slang Pictorial (ed. 3): “What’s it like, Mate?”:

A popular combination of Aussie Slang quotes, sayings and full colour photography make up this humorous book. Each photograph depicts and illustrates the accompanying Australian slang saying in a fun and intriguing way. Including some gems like: – Raining cats and dogs – Like a bandicoot on a burnt bridge – All alone like a country dunny – Buckly’s chance – A fly in the ointment and many more...

About the Author Andrew Howey was born in country Victoria and is best described as a person who enjoys social occasions and being a bit of a dag! He is a keen sportsman and for five years competed in the National Basketball League with the North Melbourne Giants and South-East Melbourne Magic.
