He's a total gear-head and, although the book is "geared" toward father of infants, it has great information for him, too.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. BIG HIT!! VERY COOL!By DBBIG HIT!! VERY COOL! I got this for my nephew who is a mechanic from a family full of mechanics, He was reading it with the brand new baby on his lap. All the boys thought it was really great and it was still a very usable formidable book in a "man" style they were drawn to.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Not What I Was Looking ForBy CThought this would have more of the diagrams but it's mostly words. Sounds silly, but was hoping for something similar to a baby manual I've seen before with funny diagrams for dads. Wish there were more photos showing content.

A humorous operating guide for fathers, Baby Owner's Manual is sure to bring a smile to any dad's face. Written by a man for men, this book likens a new baby to the other love in a man's life: no, not his wife, his car! This essential handbook covers everything from delivery of baby from Mother Nature Heavy Industries, regular servicing of your baby, standard equipment, the cooling system and liquid waste disposal, warning signs, even optimizing economy and getting the most out of your baby. This is a must-have book for any father-to-be.

About the AuthorWritten by Steve Bedwell, bestselling author of the 2009 hit book Holden vs Ford, who loves his cars and could not help but write a witty gift book for fathers and their partners, a humorous laugh-out-loud introduction to the chaotic world of parenting. Steve Bedwell is a comedy writer, television host, a radio personality, author, producer, ARIA nominated recording artist and comedian. Currently a regular panelist on Australian talkback radio, Steve is also a regular opinion panelist on Australian national TV. He is the author of Suburban Icons: A Celebration of the Everyday (1992), Vizard Uncut (2007) and the bestselling Holden vs Ford (2009). Steve has recently completed a successful tour of the Los Angeles comedy circuit.
