Lady and Jeanne Maxon : Becoming Lady: A Rescued Golden's Journey from Lonely to Loved before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Becoming Lady: A Rescued Golden's Journey from Lonely to Loved:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Read BECOMING LADY. You won't regret it. By Jan Flores As an author of 35 published books, and an avid reader. I would give this book ten more stars if I could. The (human) author Clearly knows her dogs and Lady' not only had me laughing and teary, but it was fascinating seeing how rescue dogs develop. BECOMING LADY. Is one of the best books I've read in a long time. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I loved the dog By Janice N. Marko I loved the dog, the rescue of the dog and her becoming a service dog, and the fact that the book was written as if a diary by the dog. It was fun and easy reading and an upbeat book that left me with a positive mood, which I needed at the time I read it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Charming book By Mrs Sturgis Loved the story and the format. It was delightful to learn about Lady's journey from her point of view. Her story prompted me to find out more about the organizations and people that work with service dogs. What a lovely Lady!

When we first discovered Lady, a shy golden retriever, she'd been fending for herself for quite a while. She had no reason to trust humans and zero social skills. We rescued her to become a service dog for a veteran, but Lady had other ideas. She had boundless joy to share with everyone. She let us know that she was cut out to be the ideal therapy dog, and her journey was nothing short of miraculous. Lady has become an inspiration to the young students who can't wait to read to her, the elderly patients who look forward to her visits, and the many faces she lights up everywhere she goes.

"I've trained thousands of dogs, but Lady is the one that continues to inspire me every day." --Richard Kaplan, Founder and Master Trainer, Canine Angels Service Dogs "Lady gives hope and purpose to all who are now, or someday will be, half of a foster partnership." --Janie Withers, Lifelong Animal Advocate and President of Paws-Ability About the Author Lady and Jeanne Maxon share daily sunrise beach walks, a king-size bed, an aging Subaru, and their hearts with a second wonderful golden retriever, Bode. All three spearhead a nonprofit therapy dog program that brings smiles and furry compassion to people across the coastal Carolinas. A retired public affairs professional, Jeanne still enjoys collaborating with exceptional creatives such as her coauthor, Lady. Nearly as passionate about golf as she is about dogs, for twelve years she reigned as ladies champion of her club. The three-pack live in Ocean Isle Beach, NC.
