Alexandra Bastedo : Beware Dobermans, Donkeys and Ducks before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Beware Dobermans, Donkeys and Ducks:

8 of 8 people found the following review helpful. Animal tales, show business memoirs English rural life. By A CustomerI bought this book blind, there was no blurb, thinking it might be a children's book or if not it could be part of my fledgling donkey story collection. I absolve .com for failing to categorize it. Alexandra Bastedo is a British actress and life long animal lover. She and her husband, director Patrick Garland have a rural property overflowing with an assortment of animals many of whom were brought to them needing homes. The book is an entertaining mix of James Herriot style animal stories, tales of theatrical productions and personalities, and introducing many British animal rescue groups. Cherry Blossom the escape artist donkey, a vicious guinea fowl, Emma Thompson, Omar Sharif, tea with the Queen "Mum", Blue the trooping doberman - it's all here. Everyone probably has an auntie who would love this book.

In Beware Dobbermans, Donkeys and Ducks, Alexandra Bastedo chronicles the often hilarious and sometimes dramatic saga of animal life in deepest Sussex - their arrivals, their loves, their hates and their relationships with the various celebrities who have stayed at Poplars Farmhouse.
