David Tamiran : Bible Dogs: Famous Canines in the Bible before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bible Dogs: Famous Canines in the Bible:

By Roni Nedle The book starts out in Genesis explaining the creation of the first and most important species on earth, Dogs. Each page in the book represents an important biblical event yet the lyrical text of Mr. Tamiran kept me laughing hard helping me remember the details of each cleverly told story. The book was masterfully crafted to provide rich humor, as well as an educational content, which has inspired me to read more stories about the bible and of course, dogs. No other book presents such an honest, yet unique perspective on the history of dogs and of people. After reading the whole book I just had to read it again and again! That is why I give this book my highest recommendations. 4 of 6 people found the following review helpful. A nice book for the whole family! By FAMILY Kratz WE ARE FOREIGNERS - I AM AFRAID - NEVERTHELESS WE FOUND IT TO BE EASILY UNDERSTANDABLE. WE HAVE THREE KIDS; FOR US THE PARENTS IT IS AN AMUSING ONE, HOWEVER FOR OUR ELDER KINDS (15 AND 13 YEARS OF AGE) IT IS MODERN INCENTIVE FOR LOOKING INTO THAT ISSUE AND FOR OUR LITTLE BOY THREE YEARS OF AGE IT IS A NICE PAINTING BOOK WITH QUITE SOME EDUCATIVE CHARACTER.

This humor/cartoon/satire with its 60 rich illustrations, is based on the secret 'C' or 'Canine Text' of the Dead Sea Scrolls. It will appeal to dog lovers, Bible lovers, children, and to anyone with a basic sense of humor. "...We are not the 'Chosen Species'."

" A startling expose: Will shake the foundations of the three monotheistic religions." -- San Francisco Guardian, June 21, 1999 "Dogs will rule the world in 400 years? I wish it was sooner." -- Manchester Star, June 25, 1999 "So now we know what Moses looks like." -- Paris Weekly, July 15, 1999 "The truth hurts, but is undeniable: We are not the 'Chosen Species'." -- Australian Biblical, May 15, 1999 "This is a very funny, clever, and you might even say 'semi-educational' book; the type you read over and over again." -- Tokyo Observer, May 7, 1999 From the Publisher So we are not the 'Chosen Species'. Also, dogs will rule the world in 400 years, and if Adam and Eve were dogs, there would have been no 'Original Sin'. So says this remarkably amusing book. This humor/cartoon/satire - trade paperback, 135 pages with 60 full-page cartoon illustrations - is based on the secret "C" or "Canine Text" of the Dead Sea Scrolls (discovered accidentally in the basement of the Israel Museum). It will appeal to dog lovers, Bible lovers, children, and to anyone with a basic sense of humor or spiritual bent (Biblical archeologists, historians, and religious teachers will also find the book very useful). Little children - ages 4 to 7 - will enjoy the rich illustrations - 60 of them - and will be tempted to color them. Adults and older children - ages 8 to 250 - will enjoy both the illustrations, and the accompanying 'creative text': "...But it was the eleventh plague that almost destroyed Egypt: God caused all the toilet paper to disappear" (page 90). The book covers half of the Old Testament in 13 chapters - from 'Adam and Eve' to 'King Solomon'; the sequel "BIBLE DOGS 2" - will cover the rest of the chapters. About the Author David Tamiran is the author of DOGS ARE HUMAN TOO! and HOW TO GO TO HEAVEN AND AVOID HELL; He is an obsessive, neurotic, paranoid, hypochondriac, with semi-delusions of grandeur.
