And I love the fact she is looking at Breast Cancer in a new light. I saw her in a meeting I went to. I bought 5 other copies to share with friends0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Loved this hilarious, inspirational read! Five stars for sure.By Dana RidenourI bought Big C, little ta-ta: Kicking Breast Cancer's Butt for my mother who is a two time breast cancer survivor. After my mom was diagnosed with breast cancer for the second time, she needed a pick me up and this book was the perfect medicine. My mother loved the book and raved about how funny it was, so I decided to read it myself. I read the book cover to cover in one sitting and I have to say, it was a wonderful read. Janet Sheppard Kelleher is hilarious! She is the only person who can make cancer funny. Kelleher's heartfelt memoir is well written and leaves the reader wanting more stories from this natural story teller. The book makes a thoughtful gift for anyone struggling with a cancer diagnosis. Thank you Janet Sheppard Kelleher for telling your story and making us laugh! Rock on!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A quick, comical read - the perfect uplifting gift for those dealing with cancerBy Leslie C.This book of short stories took some of the "scary" out of cancer for me by "finding the funny" in a very serious subject. I found myself laughing at things you normally would not think were humorous due to the author's witty and personal take on her journey fighting breast cancer. The accompanying illustrations were hilarious, too! I would highly recommend sharing this short book as a gift for people who are dealing with "The Big C" (cancer) and for those who have survived it, as well as their loved ones. Laughter truly IS the best medicine!

Praise for Big C, little ta-ta: "I've wanted an optimistic book like this to give my patients who are simply overwhelmed with the cancer diagnosis." - Kelly Jeffcoat, Breast Health Navigator, Lexington Medical Center "Riotous humor is the signature calling card of author Janet Kelleher. In Big C, little ta-ta, Jan delivers heart-warming stories with tickling wit that will make you laugh aloud with delight. Through her unique blending of prose, she shows feminine fortitude and joyfulness in the face of a life-altering disease. She's a must-read author, one not to be missed!" - Linda Joyce, Author of Bayou Born and Bayou Bound "In Big C, little ta-ta, Jan's stories of her battle with breast cancer are entertaining and thoughtful. Her turn-of-phrase and views on life remind me of the legendary Erma Bombeck's eclectic prose, with a twist of Southern charm thrown in. This is the perfect gift book for that special someone on your list." - Dahlynn McKowen, Not Your Mother's Book creator and Chicken Soup for the Soul co-author "Janet Kelleher takes on a terrifying subject, cancer, and body slams it to the ground with rolling-on-floor-laughing humor. Kelleher's skillful writing and her ability to find comedy amidst fear and pain - she's a Big-C survivor - is the mark of an extraordinary talent ... and a quiet determination not be undone by a fearsome disease." - Buzz Bernard, Author of Supercell, Plague, and Eyewall "Big C, little ta-ta reminded me of my time through this experience. It just touched my heart so, and it made my heart sing." - Flo Johnson, retired teacher, breast cancer survivor
