SO funnyBy CaitThis comic series is SO hysterical- and true to life- there are some real pointed moments hidden in all the teenage humor.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Big honkin' funBy M. CarlisleThis is a wonderful collection of cartoons from the syndicated strip Zits. For parents, it's a wonderfully humorous insight into the teen world. For teens, it's a wonderfully humorous insight into daily life. This is a fun series that allows parents to laugh at themselves (and the teens are already laughing at us); and the teens can laugh at themselves as well. Nothing is too taken too seriously in Jeremy's world. A good book to have around when you need a chuckle.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. What a joy to know that I wasn't the only father left ...By CustomerThe writing and cartoons were all on the mark! What a joy to know that I wasn't the only father left in the dark as my children passed through this challenging time of their lives.

Widely lauded by critics, colleagues, and readers, Zits is has been twice honored with the National Cartoonists Society's Reuben Award as the Best Newspaper Comic Strip, and received the Max and Moritz Award for Best International Comic Strip. This treasury, Big Honkin' Zits, represents a compilation of Don't Roll Your Eyes at Me, Young Man! and Are We an "Us"?. With friends and family, Jeremy ponders life's great philosophical questions, such as, "If the universe is constantly expanding, how come the sky never gets any bigger?" He tackles serious issues, too, deciding with his buddy, Hector, to shave his head to support a friend's mom who's battling cancer. Big Honkin' Zits masterfully guides its readers through the real-life joys and heartaches of being a teenager.

About the AuthorZits writer Jerry Scott also is co-creator of the award-winning strip Baby Blues. He won the National Cartoonists Society's Reuben Award in 2001 for his work on both strips. He lives in Malibu, Calif. Zits artist Jim Borgman won the 1991 Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartooning and the Reuben Award in 1993. Jim lives in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he is the editorial cartoonist for the Cincinnati Enquirer.
