Alberta Hutchinson : Mandalas Coloring Book No. 6: 32 New Unframed Round Mandala Designs before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mandalas Coloring Book No. 6: 32 New Unframed Round Mandala Designs:

These mandalas have lots of curving lines and they have that "Escher" quality where you need to look twice to decide which is the object and which is the space. In many of them you get to decide for yourself which area you want to define as "object." They are not challenging in the sense of having many super tiny spaces to color; most are perfectly manageable with colored pencils, no ultra-fine points needed. And each book does have 4-5 mandalas that I would define as "cute," e.g. teapots, flowers in pots, and, yes, teddy bears. The paper is very good quality, about twice the weight of standard 20-24 pound printer paper. No perforations though. But it only took me about 15 minutes with a hair dryer to get all the pages out of the binding.0 of

***NEW FORMAT*** Mandalas Coloring Book No. 6, illustrated by Alberta L. Hutchinson, is a collection of 32 all new mandalas, unframed as round designs, from the master designer and colorist. These mandala designs are displayed in a new format for the Hutchinson Mandala Coloring Book Collection. Children and adults alike will enjoy the infinite designs that can be made by adjusting the colors in the mandalas. Hutchinson has colored five of the mandalas on the front and back covers as examples and inspiration. As with Hutchinson's other design coloring books, Mandalas Coloring Book No. 6 will be enjoyed by colorists of all ages and levels of skill.
