Matt : Matt's Town and Country before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Matt's Town and Country:

'The funniest, the most consistent and quite simply the best' UK Press Awards From dwindling rural post offices and the frequently debated hunting question to the continuing trials and tribulations for city commuters, Matt's cartoons hit the spot every time. Brilliantly funny and always topical, he is the very best of the daily cartoonists. This themed collection offers the very best of Matt on the Town and Countryside - a must for newcomers and addicts alike.

About the Author Matthew Pritchett studied at St Martin's School of Art in London and first saw himself published in the New Statesman during one of its rare lapses from high seriousness. He has been the Daily Telegraph's front-page pocket cartoonist since 1988. He has won awards from the Cartoon Arts Trust, he is a four-times winner of UK Press Awards Cartoonist of the Year and in 2002 he received an MBE.
