Great gift for someone you don't really know who doesn't need anything.By SR18Great coffee table book for a person you don't know well. Was bought as a gift for a coworker gift bag- we have men and women, different ages, different religions, etc. Universally appealing sort of useless book. Last year I bought a book that was a year's worth of The Onion covers, and that may have gone over a little better- but only minutely.

For fans of both the irreverent Stuff White People Like and the lauded Humans of New York comes the perfect send-
