'Twas the night before Christmas, and out in the field, Elder Jones and his comp, how they peeled and they peeled. Their assignment--potatoes-- for them and their zone For a big Christmas dinner, working fingers to bone! Everyone was excited to eat and to play, Have fun with their buddies on this joyous P-Day. That morning he'd talked to his family at home, And they'd all share a laugh-- no, he wasn't alone. He'd planned all his life to serve on a mission, And nothing had stood in the way of that vision.
