Michael J. Pellowski : Monster Jokes before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Monster Jokes:

Scare up some blood-curdling, chilling chuckles! Your favorite little monsters will love these, because here come some comic creature features--and Dracula, Frankenstein, King Kong, pus robots, werewolves and mad scientists are all turning up for the fun. Howl with laughter over this: What's the tallest building in Transylvania? The Vampire State Building. Where do you gas up a monster truck? A villain station. What would you get if you crossed a monster with a grand piano? A Frankensteinway. What does King Kong wear when he barbecues ribs? An ape-ron. And, don't forget everyone's favorite freezing fiend: What does the Abominable Snowman do when people wave at him? He gives them the cold shoulder! With cool cartoony illustrations, too.
