Kathy Alpert : Mother! It's All in the Attitude: A Guide for Surviving Motherhood before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mother! It's All in the Attitude: A Guide for Surviving Motherhood:

I bought it for someone else, but I HAD to read it myself first! It is filled with warm, wonderful bits of wisdom and a LOT OF HUMOR!!! "I woke up and smelled the coffee. And once I added a little Bailey's, it tasted just fine." "My idea of exercise is running the washing machine."...are a couple of examples of the fun quotes; however, there are fun FACTS as well! Did you know that "A typical mom says "NO" an average of 145 times a week" or that "A typical mom washes dishes 82,125 times over the course of her life"? An adorable book, and I highly recommend it!

Kiss goodbye to Donna Reed and Ozzie's wife Harriet! Filled with fun, full-color retro photos and illustrations drawn from magazine ads, this new book reveals how to make the most of motherhood with the right attitude and a few well-placed zingers. It's the perfect gift for Moms who don't take themselves too seriously or for those who need a lift on a particularly challenging day.

About the AuthorAfter running a thriving PR business for many years, in 2001 Kathy Alpert founded PostMark Press, introducing a collection of greeting cards inspired by her retro postcards. As president and CEO of PostMark Press, Alpert draws on a wide range of ephemera, such as sheet music cover art, old magazine covers, and old photographs, to create greeting cards, postcards, boxed card sets, and gift enclosures. The company has designed and manufactured custom products for Anthropologie; Bas Bleu (the catalog); and museums across the country. Loyal customers include Whole Foods Markets, bookstores, and other retailers. In 2006, her crafting book/CD combo, Memories of a Lifetime: Animals, was published by Sterling/Chapelle. PostMark Press has been featured in both trade and consumer publications and Kathy has appeared with her vintage Valentines on the Martha Stewart Living television program.
