DATE NIGHT Is Great For Day Or Night By Cyrus Webb Cary Farley has put to rest the notion of some women that men don't think when it comes to them or life in general. In MR. DATE NIGHT, Cary shows how much work it is to not only be impressive when it comes to dating but also in going through the various aspects of life in general. The book takes food, music and some common sense and combines it to help out with not just setting the right tone for that person you are with but even for yourself and those in your life. Take for instance the young man or woman who is spending time with a relative's kids or babysitting nieces or nephews. There are recipes and activities in Mr. Date Night that will fit that occasion. Looking to help your parents or grandparents celebrate a birthday or special event? Take advantage of the tasty recipes that Cary has provided to help with the planning. I have already tried some of the recipes myself, and my grandmother and I are both fans of the Peach Cobbler. Very simple to make and definitely tasty. To add that something special to your event or just to "unwind", Cary has given us a one track masterpiece in UNWIND that will help you to just enjoy the moment, whether you are entertaining or alone. Easy to read and fun to enjoy, Cary Farley's MR. DATE NIGHT is great for day and night. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. a book that cooks, plays music and gives advice...By KAI own this very entertaining and useful book, and I am a woman. I'd like to leave 3 comments. 1) I am impressed with the dinners. They are easy and healthy and I will make them for my kids or friends, a date or even alone. 2) I love the CD that comes with the book. It is a unique idea and appropriate for any occasion. 3) Thank you, Mr. Date Night, for essentially writing a book for women as a strategic way to get into a man's head for a sense of y'all's true intentions; see how that works? This book is great to read, laugh (and roll your eyes) to while cooking in the kitchen. About the Author Cary Farley, an enthusiastic eater who loves to cook, is passionate about food, music and health. He feels that good nutrition plays an important role in our general health and well-being, and he has a master's degree in health science. Having spent his fair share of time as a single man who loves to cook, he thought he would combine his experiences as well as his musical background to write the perfect dating book that blends advice, food and music to help guys (and gals) learn the fine art of preparing a meal at home for their love interests. Mr. Date Night, though, represents only one of his ongoing passions. He is also a professional musician, who was introduced to music by his mother and father. Cary was seven years old when he learned to play the organ and often performed at special care institutions and recitals. Cary currently resides in Northern California, where he continues to craft his music and teach health classes at a local high school. Cary enjoys working with his students, counseling them, sharing his own experiences to reach them, and encouraging them to set their own goals. Aside from teaching, Cary is in high demand for concerts at intimate venues around Northern and Central California. With his authentic and distinct music style, Cary's music is widely used by the film and music industry and for the field of health and wellness. Cary just recently completed his latest CD, Goodnight. The new album features 14 beautifully composed tracks, which include piano, guitar, cello, violin and saxophone. Cary is now working on a new vocal CD.
