This little black book on dogs was sitting on the table. I opened it to a random page. They were the religious dog jokes. I thought what a great resource for the clergy. I opened it at another page. Again funny story. I ordered 2 copies, one for me and one for my sister who also has had dogs all her life. She read it to her husband on a trip to Chicago to help pass the time. They enjoyed the jokes and little stories also. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Only funny jokes are in the description By LR The jokes in the book description are short and funny. Unfortunately, they're the only funny ones. Most of the jokes are long, boring, repetitions of the same tired formula a dog walked into a bar. I bought it for a book exchange at work, but it was such a disappointment I wouldn't give it to anyone, or their dog. I returned it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Funny By gardengal Gave me a lot of laughs. I read through it in a couple of nights before bedtime. I figure I will read it several more times when I need a laugh

Besides being man's best friends, our canine companions turn out to be some of the world's best comedians. Here is a compact treasury of canine humor that simply takes the biscuit. Packed with dog jokes, dog riddles ("What has four legs and one arm? A happy pit bull"), quips and quotes ("Never moon a werewolf"), dogma, doggerel, and much more, it's guaranteed to have you howling with laughter. Some mature content. 144 pages. Portable size: 4-1/4 inches wide x 5-3/4 inches high; fits in your back pocket. Concealed wire-o binding. Book lies flat for ease of use. Elastic band attached to back cover keeps your place or keeps book closed. It's the perfect gift for every dog person in your life!

"Packed with riddles, jokes, quips, and quotes about everything humorously canine." Named a "Pawturner." -- Dogfancy Magazine
