Gina Meyers : The Magic of Bewitched Cookbook: Clients, Cookery and Cocktails before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Magic of Bewitched Cookbook: Clients, Cookery and Cocktails:

Want to cook fun easy meals while remembering one of your Beloved 1960's sitcoms Bewitched? "Well", as Samantha would say hop on your brooms with an appetite and take a nostalgic flight back to yesteryear with The Magic of Bewitched Cookbook: Clients, Cookery and Cocktails. A magical cookbook with plenty of culinary classics that unthaws the proverbial TV dinner and brings to life delectable desserts, mouth watering main dishes, scrumptious appetizers, yummy breakfast treats, satisfying soups and sandwiches, and beverages sure to please any mere mortal. Find out what Darrin Stephens favorite meal is and what's boiling in Serena's Saucy Guide to Life, get advice from Bewitched's resident boss, Larry Tate with his little black book of hangover remedy cures. Get Gladys Kravitz, world's noisiest neighbor sugar cookie recipe, fly on over to the Clients Coming Over In An Instant Appetizers, and pull up a chair in the Tales of Toadstools and Barstools with Dr. Bombay's Sure to Cure Favorite Home Remedy drink. The Caldron is stirring up a tasty Witches Brew in Madison Avenue Mocktails. The Magic of Bewitched Cookbook has helpful kitchen tips, trivia tidbits, rare photographs, a listing of McMann and Tate Advertising Clients, an index and great recipes! No magic wands needed, just cooking the old fashioned messy mortal way!

About the Author Gina Meyers is considered a premier Bewitched expert. This is her third book about the ever-enchanting 1960's television sitcom Bewitched. Her first book, The Magic of Bewitched Trivia and More has sold over 2,000 copies! She has consulted, written, and hosted Bewitched trivia contests throughout the United States and is featured as the Top Female Bewitched Fan on the Canadian television show Fanatical. A demonstration of one of her family friendly recipes, blueberry pancakes (one of Darrin's favorite breakfast items), was segmented on the series and a sneak preview of The Magic of Bewitched Cookbook: Clients, Cookery, and Cocktails was shown. Gina lives in Central California with her husband David, daughter Lauren, son Lucas, two cats, one dog, a hamster, at the moment a goldfish, weekend visits from stepdaughter Makenna, a pile of laundry, and a passion for cooking!
