Veteran teachers, especially, will relate to many of these cartoons and will be rolling with laughter. This book should be in every teacher's library, as these cartoons remind teachers to keep a sense of humor, even through the most difficult situations. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great book By reegee This is a great gift for a teacher, or just for yourself. It's really funny and not at all "inappropriate" (in case you're giving it to a nun). 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. It is presented well with good content. From the Inside FlapThe New Yorker Book of Teacher Cartoons is a hilarious compilation of cartoons that capture the joy, terror, excitement, anxiety, fun, and bedlam that teachers experience every day, as seen through the eyes of some of The New Yorker's best-loved cartoonists. Featuring more than a hundred contributions that span the magazine's eighty-seven-year history, this cartoon omnibus takes us inside the classroom, and pokes fun at everything from demanding students to their even more demanding parents. Compiled by Robert Mankoff, the cartoon editor of The New Yorker, and featuring an introduction by the cartoonist Lee Lorenz, this incisive and very funny collection is a testament to the invaluable work of educators everywhere.

About the AuthorRobert Mankoff is the cartoon editor of The New Yorker. He is also a cartoonist, and more than 900 of his cartoons have been published in the magazine in the past thirty years, including the best-selling New Yorker cartoon of all time. He is the author of the book The Naked Cartoonist, published in 2002, about the creative process behind developing magazine-style cartoons. He has also edited dozens of cartoon books and published four of his own. Lee Lorenz became a staff cartoonist for The New Yorker in 1958. He was the magazine's art editor from 1973 to 1993, and its cartoon editor until 1997. He is the author of The Art of The New Yorker as well as Here It Comes and Now Look What You've Done. Lorenz has served as president of the Cartoonists' Guild and lives in a rustic corner of Connecticut.
