By Christopher J. Ouellette
The other day I thought I heard something at my door. As I opened it, I was engulfed with smoke and felt a sharp pain in my eye. Three hours later, I awoke and confirmed my suspension...
KUTYUSO DEEP! With glee I dislodged his NEW BOOK from by shattered eye socket. Then, reading with my Right Eye, I was amazed to see that he, the greatest of all ninjas, had not only generously gifted me with a free copy of his new book... not only was it autographed by the man himself... I WAS LISTED IN THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT!
KUTYUSO DEEP had seen my trifles of wisdom worthy of HIS BOOK... of course the blood dripping from my once functional eye ball confirmed that I will never be the Ninja he is, but I can grow now that I am on THE NINJA'S PATH!

Marushia Dark This book was both very amusing and very insightful. I think the author probably intended it more as a gag than anything else. But if you consider it from the point of view of an actual ninja assassin, it offers many great insights into their philosophy and how they view the world and what their values are. Like the sort of guide Conan the Barbarian would have used. Even if you don't think in those kind of terms, you can still get a good laugh out of it. It's worth it just for the hilarious pictures and sayings. :D

With 70 illustrations portraying the simple joys of ninja violence, this book gives ninjas messages of peace and illumination in the virtues, rewards, ideals, and emotions of their chosen profession, silent assassination. At a small trim size, elegantly designed, this book is a ninja-themed inspirational book that understands that the wellness taught by the world leaves the silent assassin a castrated version of his former self. Ignore it! Instead, turn your attention to the seven pillars of ninjutsu wellness poetically described and elegantly illustrated in this book:~ Social~ Occupational~ Spiritual~ Intellectual~ Emotional~ Environmental~ Physical Each pillar is represented by ten core values for which the author has provided an inspirational saying and illustration to help reveal how each value applies to the ninja.

From the Inside Flap With seventy illustrations portraying the simple joys of the ninja lifestyle, this concise and elegantly designed book gives ninjas messages of peace and illumination in the virtues, rewards, ideals, and emotions of their chosen professionsilent assassination. The Ninjas Path is for anyone who understands that the wellness messages typically spouted by the world leave the silent assassin a castrated version of his former self, overflowing with useless emotions like compassion and love.
