David Dale : The Obsessive Traveller: Or Why I Don't Steal Towels from Great Hotels Any More before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Obsessive Traveller: Or Why I Don't Steal Towels from Great Hotels Any More:

From the Danieli, Fifth Avenue and Arab street markets to Nicolai's Roof Restaurant and the Pere Lachaise cemetery, from dealing with Egyptian taxi-drivers and Parisian doorman to travelling companions and Cornish landladies, this book is a eulogy on the delights and discoveries of travel. David Dale is the author of "An Australian in America" and "The Official Liar's Handbook".
