Dr. Dave in the magical ER at ANW. His stories are so witty and I can hear his voice narrating this book to me. He's an amazing doctor but an even more amazing human being. (Miss you and the rest of the ANW family!) 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Spot on! By Zach Really enjoyed reading the book. At several points, I was reminded of Samuel Shem's "House of God". The macabre humor with a garnish of cynicism and sarcasm makes for an outright hilarious read. Dr. Peterson has a keen sense of rationalism and it is tremendously entertaining as he takes you through the truly outrageous experiences in life and emergency medicine in which he develops this uncanny trait. Again, an incredibly fun read with a lot of truth and just as much humor. I really really, really hope DRP decides to continue writing. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Being a physician myself, I can so absolutely appreciate ... By Shellical Angelical Being a physician myself, I can so absolutely appreciate Dr. Peterson's humor in this book! Humor gives the levity needed to get through the gravity of medicine, and Dr. Peterson has it nailed!

A humorous look at life through the eyes of an Emergency Physician. Laws of both normal life and experience, but also through the lens of medicine. Many are familiar and natural, with funny spins on the way people live. There are many vignettes from life experiences, golf analogies, and true experiences obtained throughout a career in the Emergency Room.

About the Author About the Author David R. Peterson is an Emergency Physician living in Edina, Minnesota. He grew up in Glenview, Illinois. He attended St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota, graduating in 1980, marrying his college sweetheart Sheri in 1981. He spent 1980-84 back in Chicago attending Loyola University Stritch School of Medicine, then back to Minnesota to complete a 3 year Internal Medicine residency at Abbott-Northwestern Hospital in Minneapolis. After another year as chief resident, he started full time at the hospital in Emergency Medicine in 1988. When he isn't on the golf course, lifting weights and working out, playing racquetball or tennis, visiting with family and friends, up at the cabin, attending hockey games, bible studies, church, and reading, he can be found at work or watching Star Trek. Through his work in the Emergency Department, there have been countless residents, students, and scribes whose lives have been touched (in some way) over the years.
