The Secret Life of Mandalas is an adult coloring book filled with uniquely designed Mandalas to color. The book also features poetry with a focus on Haiku poems written by author and artist, Melba Christie. Coloring mandalas helps us to focus, and the practice helps us to meditate, relax and release stress.

From the AuthorI believe this coloring book is unique. It contains my original Haiku poems, and mandalas I created inspired by quotes by favorite authors and artists. I wanted to offer the reader and colorist a varied artistic and creative experience. Coloring helps to relieve stress and for me a poem can change a mood and offer a different prospective about life. I often say that poetry is life and life is poetry.
