Omigosh we love everything about this By TFLReader We are cat lovers and my son and I just finished reading "There Once Was a Cat" for about the third time this week. There is nothing not to love about this delightful book. I grew up with some beloved poetry books and this is surely a new one for the ages. There is a great cat limerick on each page, with a cat named for every letter of the alphabet. Not only that, you can search the lovely illustrations for those letters and try to find as many instances of them as you can, checking for the right answer at the back of the book. We loved the poems, the images and the fun exercises included. Can't recommend this one enough. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. For every cat lover 1 By Linda CranmerFor anyone who has ever owned, or loved, a cat, this book is a treasure! Ms. Cogan captures cats in many of their usual poses and inserts them in her magical scenes. The clever limericks are quotable and her delicate pictures charming. I have read this book over and over to my granddaughters whose ages range from 6 to 18. All ask for a repeat! Many of my cat loving friends have also enjoyed this book at my recommendation. Hats off to a very talented lady and cat lover! Linda C.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Delightful book for both reader and listener alike...By karen collinsDelightful book for both reader and listener alike. Tongue twisting use of words create lyrical prose while illustrations offer the quest for hidden letters A-Z as an interactive feature.

AWARD-WINNING BOOK2017 - GREAT SOUTHEAST BOOK FESTIVAL - chose this book as the RUNNER-UP in the POETRY category.

EDITORIAL REVIEWfromWashington Parent Magazine, May 2016Cat lovers of all ages will enjoy "There Once Was a Cat." This 2016 New Apple Book Award winner by Mary Jane Cogan, M Ed., combines the antics of cats with lighthearted limerick poetry. Whether you own a crazy cat or not,you will be charmed by the twenty-six alphabetically amusing limericks written about cats, beginning with A for Anna and ending with Z for Zipper. A delightful watercolor illustration accompanies each limerick, and within each illustration is the first letter of the cat's name. Cogan, a former reading teacher, even instructs readers on what a limerick is and where the name "limerick" came from.
