Jeff Nathan : There's a Bear in My Shoe (Punoetry) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised There's a Bear in My Shoe (Punoetry):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. From Mom of young kidsBy Pixi6sThe book looks like its poems for preschoolers but they are more for older kids, maybe pre-teens. By the look for the book though, I don't think most preteens would pick it up. The poems are full of puns that would go over most young kids heads, when you take that way it's just people getting hurt, not behaving well, bad sports, doesn't send a good message. Older kids who know better might enjoy the puns but you may have to sell it to them first.Examples:Take me out of the ballgameTake me out of right fieldPut someone in who won't trip and fall...If we don't win I'm to blameAnd it's one two three strike I'm outWhen I play this game
